IXI NEWS & NOTES

- ★ Tonight marks the second match against Monterey Bay F.C. in as many seasons of play for the new California club that enjoyed its expansion campaign in the USL Championship last year. In their first meeting out west last September it was all MBFC, which used Chase Boone's first half brace to race out to a lead that mushroomed to an eventual 5-0 win at Cardinale Stadium.
- ★ The match against Monterey Bay ends a four-game run against Western Conference opposition for Indy Eleven. For the first time since the 2014 season (then USL Pro), USL Championship clubs will play every other team in the league, squaring off against in-conference opposition twice and cross-conference opponents once.
- ★ Earlier this week Indy Eleven introduced 33 women who will help make up the roster for its second season of play in the USL W League, kicking off in May. The first batch of signed players several returnees from last season's division-winning side that finished the regular season undefeated at 10W-0L-2D, including All-W League First Team selection Katie Soderstrom, Second Team All-League selection Maddy Williams, and '22 stalwarts Ella Rogers, Abby Isger, Addie Chester, Karsyn Cherry, Greta Kraszula, and Becky Dean. Indy Eleven will look to announce additional players to the roster in the coming weeks leading up to the 2023 season opener on May 10 at St. Charles FC.
- ★ Indy Eleven is proud to partner with Fishers-based spokenote, which will serve as the Title Partner of Undrafted, the club's new "pathway to the pros" reality series that will take place throughout 2023. Fans can learn more about the unique program, which included this afternoon's tryouts for hopefuls looking to earn a coveted spot in the Eleven's 2024 preseason camp, at indyeleven.com/undrafted.
