Midfielder | Maalique Foster

Forward Maalique Foster has started the 2025 season impressively, earning the USL Championship "Team of the Week" for the second consecutive week after his performance vs. North Carolina FC on April 5.

In the 48th minute, Foster showed his speed to catch up to a long ball from just outside his own area from defender Pat Hogan, getting to it just prior to it reaching the endline and centering it to forward Edward Kizza, who buried it with a one-touch finish for his first goal for the Boys in Blue.

On the season, Foster has a goal and an assist, he leads Indy Eleven in chances created (8), and he is third in fouls won (6) while playing 339 minutes and starting all four matches. He is tied for 14th in the USLC in chances created and tied for 18th in assists.

Foster has scored 21 goals and added 15 assists in six seasons in the USLC. He scored his first goal for the Boys in Blue vs. El Paso on September 14, earning USLC "Team of the Week" recognition. He registered his first assist for Indy Eleven vs. Louisville City. Foster made his debut for the team at Las Vegas on Aug. 24, one day after being acquired from Colorado Springs.

In 2024, Foster recorded five goals and five assists with 43 shots (20 on goal), ranking among league leaders in those categories along with chances created (49), and duels won (128).

He played in all 12 matches after joining lndy, starting 10 of them. He started 28 of 32 matches on the campaign, minutes. Tied for team lead with 49 key passes in 2024. He led returning players with 135 duels won.

logging 2,322

Indy Eleven acquired Foster from Colorado Springs on August 23, 2024. Against Indy Eleven on April 20 in Colorado Springs, Foster started and had two shots (one on target), two chances created, and six completed passes in the final third in a 1-1 draw.

In 2022 for Sacramento Republic FC he had a bigger impact with eight goals and one assist. Foster's season highlight came in the 2022 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Semifinal when his Panenka penalty kick against Sporting Kansas City helped Republic FC advance to the final after a penalty shootout.

The Portmore, Jamaica native (also the hometown of Indy Eleven's Romario Williams) joined Sacramento from the Israeli Premier League club Ironi Kiryat Shmona, on loan from Santos de Guápiles FC of the Costa Rican Primera División. With Santos de Guápiles FC he recorded five goals in 12 appearances.

Foster's previous experience in the USLC includes a stint with Rio Grande Valley FC in 2019, where he netted three goals and four assists in 11 matches.

International play for Foster consists of multiple call ups to the Jamaican National Team (the Reggae Boyz), where he has recorded three goals in eight appearances. In his international debut with the team, he scored the game-tying goal in a 2-2 draw against South Korea. He was also part of the 2019 Gold Cup squad that advanced to the tournament semifinals and he has competed for his country in Concacaf Nations League.
