INDY★ELEVEN FEATURED

Midfielder | Cam Lindley

Midfielder Cam Lindley has been a key figure in two Boys in Blue 1-0 victories already this season.

In the team's last match at Birmingham Legion FC on June 4, Lindley scored on a laser from 25 yards out into the bottom left corner just inside the post in the fourth minute to lead his team to a key road victory. It was his first goal of the season and the fifth in his USLC career.

In the Boys in Blue's Third Round match in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup on April 16, Lindley delivered a perfect free kick in the final minute of second-half stoppage time that defender Hayden White headed home to advance Indy Eleven into the Round of 32.

In the next Open Cup match at current MLS Eastern Conference leader Philadelphia Union on May 7, Lindley calmly converted his penalty kick in the shootout, ultimately won by the hosts.

On the season, Lindley is tied for fourth on the Boys in Blue with seven chances created in 147 minutes played.

The Carmel native is in his third consecutive season and fourth overall with Indy Eleven. Lindley ranks second among current Boys in Blue in USLC career assists (28) and fourth in appearances (168), games started (143), and minutes (12,577).

In 2023, Lindley earned his second consecutive USL All-League Second Team selection after an offseason transfer brought the Indiana native home to the Boys in Blue.

The central midfielder recorded team highs of eight assists, 60 chances created, and 34 games started.

Indy Eleven made a familiar face its first new acquisition of the 2022-23 offseason on Dec. 1, 2022, when Indiana's Team made official the return of Lindley via a transfer deal with Colorado Springs Switchbacks FC.

The 27-year-old Lindley earned his first USL Championship All-League honor as a member of the Switchbacks with a Second Team nod in 2022, when his league-leading 94 chances created resulted in nine assists (tied for sixth) and an 80% pass completion rate. He also recorded 205 recoveries and 36 interceptions in a solid all-around fourth full USLC campaign that ended with Colorado Springs' first appearance in the Western Conference Final in eight seasons.

Starting with a singular appearance for Saint Louis FC in 2018 while on loan from Major League Soccer's Orlando City SC, Lindley racked up 18 assists and three goals in 103 USL Championship matches for Memphis FC (2019), Indy Eleven (2020), San Antonio FC (2021), and Colorado Springs (2022).

In the COVID-shortened 2020 season with Indiana's Team, Lindley appeared in 12 of the squad's 16 contests, including nine starts. Lindley also made three MLS appearances for Orlando to start his 2018 rookie campaign, which followed two standout seasons at NCAA powerhouse North Carolina in 2016-17.

Prior to college, Lindley was a standout for Guerin Catholic High School (where he also played point guard on the state-champion basketball team) and numerous Indiana Fire Juniors squads. His youth experience also included nearly 30 appearances with U.S. Youth National Teams starting at the Under-17 level, including two "caps" for the U.S. Under-23's in 2019. He played with current Boys in Blue midfielder James Murphy on the U18 and U20 national teams.
