Defender | Bruno Rendon

Matanzas, Cuba, native Bruno Rendon has shown his versatility on the pitch in his debut season in the USL Championship for the Boys in Blue. The 25-year-old Rendon has played defender, midfielder, and attacker for Indy Eleven, starting 17 of his 20 matches played.

Rendon earned USLC "Team of the Week" honors after leading the team in tackles won (4) and crosses attempted (3), and he tied for the team best in shots (3), completed passes in the final third (9), and recoveries (6) while winning nine of 11 duels.

After leading his former team Northern Colorado Hailstorm FC to the inaugural USL Jägermeister Cup in 2024, Rendon helped his new team advance to the 2025 quarterfinals. He converted his penalty kick in Indy Eleven's 7-6 shootout victory over Birmingham Legion FC in group play on June 28 at Carroll Stadium.

Against FC Tulsa in the group stage finale on July 26, Rendon recorded his first Boys in Blue assist, and he made a cross that turned into an own goal in a 2-1 victory.

In the Jager Cup quarterfinals vs. Greenville Triumph SC on August 20, Rendon assisted on Romario Williams' goal that gave the Boys in Blue a 1-0 lead.

Indy Eleven signed the 2024 USL League One Defender of the Year on December 5.

Rendon earned All-League First

Team honors for the Hailstorm last season, leading the league with 169 duels won and helping the Hailstorm to a club-record top-two finish. Rendon tallied six goals (tied for team high), two assists, 88 recoveries, 75 aerial duels won, 47 completed long passes, 35 clearances, 29 tackles won, 28 fouls won, 26 dribbles completed, 22 chances created, 16 shots on target, and 14 interceptions.

Rendon played defender, midfielder, and forward to help Northern Colorado to its club-best season under Coach Éarnon Zayed, Indy Eleven franchise scoring leader with 26 goals and 61 points.

Rendon also featured prominently as Northern Colorado claimed the inaugural USL Jägermeister Cup, scoring nine goals in eight appearances. He scored in the Hailstorm's semifinal win against Union Omaha and in the Final against Forward Madison FC as the side took victory in a penalty shootout.

He did all of that for a 2024 squad that finished second in the USL League One regular season, the best finish in club history, and allowed just 18 goals in 22 regular season matches.

Rendon earned 2023 All-League Second Team honors for Northern Colorado with five goals and three assists in 26 games (24 starts).

The former Cuba youth international (U17 and U20) began his professional career in the National Independent Soccer Association (NISA) with the Syracuse Pulse in 2022, scoring three goals and adding an assist in 15 matches (8 GS).

Rendon is the second Cuban to play for Indy Eleven, following Adrian Diz Pe (2023-24).
